Why does everyone go to the Library?

To Consult
Information specialists are here to help you complete your assignments.
Start with a librarian for any research challenge, whether finding a fact, creating a citation, or tackling that large research assignment and avoid information overload. Drop in, call (724) 357-3006, email http://answers.lib.iup.edu, or text us (724) 401-1984. Make an appointment for our “Bring Your Assignment” Service, and a librarian (there is one for every major) will be waiting to help you! http://www.iup.edu/page.aspx?id=55687

Technology Assistance at our Information Commons Support Desk can:
Help with word processing, other computer software issues, scanning, and printing.
Set up your laptop to use the library Wi-Fi.
Help you with the multimedia pods, Studio 1b, and answer other technology-related questions.

To Collaborate
Comfortable group study spaces on the ground and 1st floors of Stapleton and the 2nd floor of Stabley are perfect for working on projects.
Multi-media pods enable you to create quality media projects with your group.

To Contemplate
IUP Libraries provide access to hundreds of thousands of books, media materials, and millions of journal articles; in print and electronic format.
Quiet study areas on 2nd and 3rd floors.
Private, individualized study carrels available on the 2nd floor of Stapleton Library on a first-come, first-served basis.

To Connect
Hundreds of computers with high-speed access to the Internet.
Visit the most popular computer lab on campus.
Borrow laptops and netbooks and access the Internet via our high speed Wi-Fi.
Check out your own books with our self-check-out system.
Get access to thousands of electronic books and millions of electronic journal articles through the Library web page. http://www.iup.edu/library
Order books and journal articles not owned by IUP through Interlibrary Loan Services by our library. http://www.iup.edu/libraries/interlibrary-loan/default.aspx
Make a suggestion with our online form. http://www.iup.edu/page.aspx?ekfrm=77391

http://www.iup.edu/library