STUDIES

• Lloyd and Martha Kramer (1968) found a positive relationship between library use and persistence as students who borrowed books from the library dropped out 40% less often than non-borrowers when your parents were in college act-library-use-and-student-performance

• More recently Cox and Jantti (2012) found a strong correlation between students' grades and use of information resources the library provides. EDUCUSEReview Online http://www.educause.edu/ero/article/discovering-imp
STUDIES

• Shun Han Rebekah Wong and T.D. Webb (2013) reported on a large-scale study with a sample of over 8,700 students grouped by major and level of study. In 65% of the groups, they found a positive relationship between use of books and A/V materials borrowed from the library and GPA.

• Vance, Kirk and Garner (2012) found a measurable correlation between student performance and library instruction.

• Applegate (2009) found that students show a strong preference to using the library for their academic work.

GUIDE TO THE LIBRARIES

Starting college can be a challenge, but you are not in it alone. From your first day of classes to your graduation day, IUP Libraries will be there to support you every step of the way. We offer extensive print and electronic information sources, state of the art computing equipment, helpful and highly qualified personnel to assist you and a range of services developed specifically to support your academic success. All this can be found in facilities that have the longest hours on campus (open 24/7) and are designed to help you concentrate, collaborate, and contemplate. You will find everything you need at the Libraries to help you get your work done well and in record time.

LOOKING FOR HELP?

It is likely at some point you will need some help with your information needs. IUP has friendly librarians always ready to help you with your research and projects. Avoid frustrations and delays by bringing any questions you have concerning study or research to the librarians at the reference desk. To reach us:

Visit the Reference Desk in person. We are located on the first floor of Stapleton Library most days and evening times that the library is open.

Call us at 724-357-2066 or 866-926-8816.
LIBRARY LIVING-LEARNING BULLETIN BOARD AWARD

• IUP Libraries and IUP Office of Housing Residential Living and Dining pursue our missions and our institutions’ Expected Undergraduate Student Learning Outcomes by developing social learning environments conducive to group or individual scholarly pursuits including the development of information literacy skills. We work collaboratively to encourage students living in the residence halls to take full advantage of library services and resources.

• Peer educators in the Office of Housing, Residential Living, and Dining inform IUP students about all the Libraries have to offer through library focused informational displays.

• To show our appreciation for Community Assistants and Academic Success Mentors’ valuable contributions to student learning, IUP Libraries and OHRLD created a series of monthly awards and one annual award for those who have developed creative library-focused bulletin boards for the residence halls.
